Pskov and Norrtälje will pursue the goals of deepening the sister city relationship and promoting friendship and understanding between the cities of Pskov and Norrtälje and between the peoples of Russia and Sweden.

By broadening the network of mutual contacts, Pskov and Norrtälje will strive to support mutual cooperation and world peace.

Both cities agree to promote and facilitate exchanges of both information and individuals. These exchanges would include:

- general information regarding life in each city
- official delegations in regular and timely fashion
- individuals from a variety of areas of specialization including business, culture, education, health care, government, and society in general
- the mutual promotion of direct contacts between business, educational institutions at all levels, health care facilities, cultural and social groups.

All specific activities will be annually discussed and planned by representatives of both cities. All contacts will be based on the ideals of mutual cooperation and assistance.

This agreement lays the foundation for wide-ranging initiatives in a variety of fields, the exchange of ideas, friendship and understanding between citizens of both cities.
